

YOUTH LEADERSHIP CONTEST APPLICATION

Purpose: This contest is a combination of the ARBA achievement and management contests, but modified to be specific to the Tan breed. It was designed so that it does not require attendance at the national show.

Requirements: The following application must be completed and submitted before the deadline. If additional space is required, answers can be typed out or handwritten as needed. If handwritten, it must be completely legible. As appropriate, answers should be crafted to the Tan breed specifically. Please only answer the questions presented and do not include photos or other identifying information.

Deadline: April 8th, 2017 (postmark) or emailed by midnight. Please see the bottom of the application for submission information.

Questions:

1. Are you currently a member of the ARBA and/or ATRSC? If so, how long have you maintained consecutive membership?

2. What other clubs are you a member of? Do you hold (or have you held) any leadership positions in these clubs?

3. Why did you decide to raise/show Tan rabbits?

4. What have you done to promote the breed?

5. What have you done to promote the ATRSC and/or local Tan specialty clubs?

6. What are the most important Tan specific awards (show or educational) you have won?

7. Discuss one goal you set for your Tan project and how you achieved it.

8. What goals do you have for the future of your Tan project?

9. Please briefly describe your rabbitry set-up (number of animals, building details, cage set up, etc.).

10. How do you select which Tans will be kept within your own herd for either show or breeding purposes?

11. What do you do with your extra (surplus) animals?

12. How do you prepare your Tans for shows?

13. What can clubs and leaders do to better promote the breed?

14. What do you think of the current standard of perfection for the Tan breed? Is there anything you would like to see changed or addressed by the standards committee?

15. Is there anything you would like us to know that has not been asked?
