

CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS
AMERICAN TAN RABBIT SPECIALTY CLUB
With revisions through April 2016

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I – NAME

This organization shall be known as the American Tan Rabbit Specialty Club.

ARTICLE II – OBJECTIVES

Section 1: To promote, encourage, and improve the breeding of the four varieties of the Tan Rabbit.

Section 2: To maintain an active publicity program.

Section 3: To disseminate authentic information to the members and any interested persons regarding the four varieties of the Tan Rabbit.

Section 4: To encourage the exhibition of the Tan Rabbit.

ARTICLE III – AFFILIATION

This organization shall be affiliated with the American Rabbit Breeders Association Incorporated.

ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: Any person of good moral character and reputation and in accord with the objectives may become a member of this organization upon presentation of a signed application together with membership fee for at least one (1) year to the Secretary/Treasurer.

Section 2: Term of membership to be one (1) year from the date of the application submitted, provided same is received by the Secretary/Treasurer within thirty (30) days of said date, otherwise, membership will start upon dues being received by the Secretary/Treasurer.

Section 3: The Board of Directors reserves the right to reject any application for membership or renewal.

ARTICLE V – OFFICERS

Section 1: The officers of this organization shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary/Treasurer, and nine (9) Directors. There will be one Director elected from each of the ARBA districts. These twelve (12) shall consist of the Board of Directors.

Section 2: The officers shall be elected biannually from and by the membership by mail ballot. The President, Secretary/Treasurer and five (5) Directors shall be elected on even numbered years. The Vice-President and four (4) Directors shall be elected on odd numbered years. In regard to district directors, a member may vote only for those candidates running to represent the district in which the member resides.

Section 3: To be eligible for election to office, a member must own and be actively engaged in breeding and/or showing Tan Rabbits. In addition, any person wishing to run for office must have been a member of the American Tan Rabbit Specialty Club for at least the last two (2) consecutive years.

Section 4: All officers' terms shall commence at the beginning of new business at the Annual Meeting.

Section 5: Any vacancies in office shall be filled by appointment by the President, subject to majority vote approval by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI – MEETINGS

Section 1: The Annual Membership Meetings shall be held during the Annual convention of the American Rabbits Breeders Association, Inc.

Section 2: The President may call as many additional membership or Board of Directors meetings as he/she deems necessary to transact the annual business.

Section 3: Five (5) members present at the annual meeting shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4: At the annual meeting, the members present will be asked to select the judge of their choice three years in advance. Following the close of nominations, the names presented will be voted on by those members in good standing in attendance at the annual meeting. The judge receiving the highest number of votes will be selected to judge the Tans at the convention three years following his/her selection at the annual meeting. This name will be sent by the Secretary/Treasurer to the ARBA before the end of the year.

ARTICLE VII – DISCIPLINE

Section 1: Charges of misconduct may be filed by a member against any other member. Charges must be filed with the Secretary/Treasurer in writing. This document must provide full details in support of the grievance filed.

Section 2: In the event of preferment of charges, the member against whom the charges have been filed shall be furnished a complete statement of the charges by the Secretary/Treasurer and shall be allowed thirty (30) days to file a reply.

Section 3: The charges, together with the reply (if received), shall be furnished to each member of the Board of Directors for their consideration.

Section 4: The Board of Directors may, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote suspend or expel the member. Less than two-thirds (2/3) vote shall constitute an acquittal of the charges.

Section 5: Any member or persons suspended, expelled, or otherwise rejected shall not be eligible for reinstatement for a period of at least one (1) year from the time of suspension or expulsion. The Board of Directors must authorize reinstatement by a two-thirds \(2/3\) vote.

Section 6: Any Officer who shows a lack of interest in his official duties or who fails to answer correspondence on club matters from his fellow officers shall be asked by the President and/or Board of Directors to resign said office.

ARTICLE VIII – AMENDMENTS

Section 1: An amendment to the constitution is to be presented for consideration by a member (1) in good standing.

Section 2: Any amendment to be considered by the members at the Annual Meeting must first be submitted to the constitution and By-Laws Committee Chairperson postmarked or emailed no later than July 15th of any year. The committee chairperson will then send copies of the proposed changes to committee members no later than August 15th. Committee members are to read and study the proposed changes carefully and report back to the chairperson no later than September 15th. The committee chairperson will send a copy of the proposed changes to the Secretary/Treasurer. The proposed changes must reach the Secretary/Treasurer prior to the annual meeting.

Section 3: Any amendment to the Constitution and By-Laws will be read and discussed at the Annual Meeting. The relative worth of the proposed amendments will be submitted for publication in the Tan Tribune by the Constitution and By-Laws Committee Chairperson no later than the deadline for the January/February issue to the Tan Tribune. All amendments will then be acted upon by a vote of the entire membership by mailed ballot. This ballot may be included in the Tan Tribune.

Section 4: A two-thirds (2/3) majority of the votes cast is required for the adoption of any amendment.

Section 5: All ballots shall be counted by the Election Committee.

- 6)A final sweepstakes report at the end of the sweepstakes year with total points of each member, regardless of the number of points, adult and youth are to be sent to the Tribune editor for publication.
- 7)The Sweepstakes Chairperson shall furnish the Editor of the Tan Tribune current sweepstakes standings for each issue.

ARTICLE IV – VOTING PROCEDURE

Section 1: Any member of this Association in good standing, wishing to become a candidate for any elective office of the Association, shall send the Secretary/Treasurer a nominating petition. The nominating petition may be sent via email provided another member in good standing sends a separate email to the Secretary/Treasurer stating their support for the candidate. This separate email shall act as their signature on the candidate's petition. The nominating petition shall be completed by the member and shall show the member's name and the office for which he/she desires to be a candidate, and shall, in addition, be signed by one (1) member of this association in good standing. The petition shall be mailed to the Secretary/Treasurer of the association with a postmark of not later than midnight of May 31st. The Secretary/Treasurer shall place the name of the member appearing on the petition and the office for which he/she is a candidate on the election ballot. Election ballots shall be numbered consecutively and mailed on July 15th of each year to each member of the association 10 and older in good standing on that date. Membership tenure must be established by May 31st of the election year to be eligible to vote. Ballots will be mailed to each eligible member of the association in good standing on that date. The ballots shall have a postmark mailing deadline. An envelope addressed to the chairperson of the ballot committee, by name and address, shall accompany each ballot with the word "ballot" written in the lower left-hand corner. Each voting member shall mark his/her ballot, place it in the envelope mailed with the ballot, seal same and mail directly to the chairperson of the ballot committee. The ballot committee shall count all ballots received, counting to be done on the 10th day following the postmark deadline. A certified copy of the results is to be sent to the President and Secretary/Treasurer within ten (10) days of the counting date. Any ballot having a late postmark is not to be opened, but placed in a sealed envelope along with the ballots and forwarded to the Secretary/Treasurer. Ballots are to be kept by the Secretary/Treasurer for one (1) year, to be opened only in the event that there is a demand for a recount. Any ballot not having a legible postmark and received after the deadline is not to be opened but placed in a sealed envelope with the ballots to be forwarded to the Secretary/Treasurer.

Section 2: The Secretary/Treasurer shall inform the nominees and the Board of Directors of the results and shall declare the nominees having the highest number of votes elected.

Section 3: The officers-elect shall assume office at the beginning of the new business at the annual meeting.

Section 4: In the case of only one candidate running per office, the Secretary/Treasurer will cast one vote to elect these candidates and save the association money and postage.

Section 5: The judge who judges Tans at convention will be ineligible for nomination at that year's meeting.

ARTICLE V – COMPENSATION

Section 1: The Secretary/Treasurer shall receive 10% of Membership dues, sanctions, and 10% of the profit of publicity items sold during the business year, as full compensation for his/her services, as well as $100.00 for attending Tan Nationals, and $150.00 for attending the National ARBA Convention.

Section 4: The webmaster will receive a yearly stipend of $150.00.

Section 5: Stipends will not be prepaid. If an entire year is not completed, the stipend will be prorated for the amount of time the duty was actually performed. In the case of one person holding multiple positions, only one stipend will be paid. No one person shall receive multiple stipends.

ARTICLE VI – TAN TRIANGLE AWARD

Section 1: The Tan Triangle Award may be awarded annually to the Tan Fancier who has done the most to promote Tans and the Tan club that calendar year providing the Tanner nominated fulfills the requirements outlined by the Board of Directors.

Section 2: Each member shall be given the opportunity to nominate a contestant for the Tan Triangle Award for the past calendar year. The nomination shall include a brief statement setting forth the qualifications of the contestant. Members submitting the nomination shall forward such to the Secretary/Treasurer no later than January 31st of the new calendar year. The nomination may be sent to the Secretary/Treasurer via email.

Section 3: The top five (5) names in number of nominating votes received shall be given to the Board for their decision. The Board will make their decision by the end of February.

Section 4: If only one (1) name is presented, the Board of Directors will give proper consideration to this person's qualifications for said award.

Section 5: The President shall issue a ballot by the end of March to all Officers and Directors indicating the five (5) nominees with the most nominating votes from the membership, accompanied by the statement of qualifications. The ballots may be issued via email.

Section 6: Ballots from the Officers and Directors shall be returned to the President by the last day of April. Ballots must be signed. No Officer or Director may vote for him/herself, is he/she is a nominee. Ballots may be returned via email and the email address acts as the signature.

Section 7: The nominee receiving the most votes from the officers and directors, shall be the recipient of the Tan Triangle Award for the past calendar year. The President shall direct the Secretary/Treasurer to order an engraved plaque for the recipient of the Tan Triangle Award. The Secretary/Treasurer shall also notify the recipient by letter or email. Results shall be published in the Tan Tribune newsletter as soon as possible. If the recipient is present at the convention, the award will be made there, otherwise the award will be mailed.

ARTICLE VII – TAN TANKARD AWARD

Section 1: The judge judging the ARBA national show will receive an engraved tankard for honoring us with his/her services. This tankard is to be awarded at the ARBA Convention.

ARTICLE X – AMENDMENTS AND RESOLUTIONS

Refer to Constitution, Article VIII.

USE OF THE ATRSC LOGO

- 1) The ATRSC is the sole owner of the official ATRSC Logo and owns all copyrights to the image.
- 2) The ATRSC Logo may only be sold on official ATRSC merchandise by the ATRSC.
- 3) The ATRSC Logo may appear on club correspondence, the club publications, club forms and on the club website.
- 4) The ATRSC Logo may be used on awards only at the annual Tan Nationals and the ARBA Convention.
- 5) Other permissible uses:
No other entity may create or sell merchandise featuring the ATRSC Logo, including parts of the logo without first obtaining permission from the ATRSC board with an agreed upon compensation made to the club for its use. Any authorized use may not compete with existing club merchandise without specific permission given to do so.

TAN TRIBUNE EDITORIAL POLICIES

Rule 1: The Tan Tribune is to be the official publication of the ATRSC. It shall inform members of all news pertaining to the club, shall inform members of their dues expiration date, shall list new members, shall give show reports, list upcoming shows, give sweepstakes reports, give all news pertaining to the raising, exhibiting and betterment of the Tan Rabbit.

Rule 2: The Tan Tribune Editor shall be appointed and approved by a majority vote of the officers and directors of the club. Subsequently, the Editor may be removed at any time by a majority vote of the officers and directors of the club.

Rule 3: The Editor has the right to refuse to print any article that is not in the best interest of the club or the Tan Rabbit with the approval of the Board of Directors.

Rule 4: All letters to the Editor must be signed in order to be printed. You may request that your name not be used in the Tribune, if you do not want your name printed.

Rule 5: The Tan Tribune is to be published bi-monthly.

Rule 6: The Editor, upon completion of printing and mailing of the Tan Tribune, shall send copies of all bills to the Secretary/Treasurer, who, upon receipt of said bills will make such payment. The Editor is not to obligate the club to any expenditures except those directly related to publishing and mailing of the Tribune.

Rule 7: The Secretary/Treasurer shall furnish the Tan Tribune editor an up-to-date financial report for each issue of the Tan Tribune published.

ATRSC WEB PRESENCE:

Rule 1: The website is the official on-line presence for the ATRSC. The primary purpose of the website is to promote the American Tan Rabbit Specialty club and provide information about the Tan breed.

Rule 2: The webmaster shall be appointed by the President and approved by a majority vote of the officers and directors of the club. Subsequently, the webmaster may be removed at any time by a majority vote of the officers and directors of the club.

Rule 3: The person appointed to this position must have or have access to the necessary equipment and software to fulfill the position requirements, in addition to the education and/or skills necessary to perform the job. The ATRSC will not provide any hardware or software to facilitate the performance of the webmaster's duties.

Rule 4: In keeping with the purpose of the ATRSC, the webmaster is required to present a minimum of this information about the club:

- Who we are and what we do

- An invitation to join the community working with Tans

- Relevant forms, such as membership application, sanction forms, etc.

- To present information about the Tan breed

- Present accurate and current contact information about the club officers and directors

Rule 5: The Webmaster is required to annually validate with the club officers and the board that the content, usability and presentation of the club's web presence complies with the needs of the club. The officers and board may request adjustments, deletions and additions to the content in the website at any time.

Rule 6: Any content and photos used may only be added with permission from the owners of the content. Proof of permission to use the content must be kept on file as long as the content is used on the ATRSC website and one year beyond its removal. Credit for submitted content must be given with the content that is being used. Owners of the content can request their content be removed and the webmaster shall promptly comply.

Rule 7: Outside links to entities other than the ARBA must be approved by the board.

Rule 8: MEMBER LISTINGS: Any member listings presented on the website are for networking purposes. Because of the public nature of this medium, members must request to be included in this list. Listed members must be in good standing with the club. If the active membership is allowed to lapse, the listing will be removed. Members may choose to list any combination of the email addresses, phone numbers, or website addresses. Members may also request to be removed at any time. All members of the ATRSC are equal and as such, listings will not advertise other affiliations or titles such as 4H, ARBA judge, registrar, etc.

Rule 9: The Webmaster will send a copy of the annual hosting bill to the Secretary/Treasurer, who, upon receipt, will reimburse the cost. The Webmaster is not to obligate the club to any expenditure except those related directly to the Tan club's website.

Rule 10: For continuity purposes the Webmaster is required to file a copy of access codes and passwords for the website with the Secretary/Treasurer for safe keeping in the case the Webmaster should become incapacitated or unavailable.

SWEEPSTAKES SHOW RULES-

OPEN AMERICAN TAN RABBIT SPECIALTY CLUB

In order to stimulate the exhibition of Tan Rabbits in all shows, The American Tan Rabbit Specialty Club has approved the following rules to govern these shows:

Rule 1: No club or association shall hold a Tan sweepstake show unless their show is sanctioned by the American Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc.

Rule 2: No club or association shall hold a Tan sweepstakes show without written permission from the Secretary of the American Tan Rabbit Specialty Club.

Rule 3: A Tan sweepstake sanction can only be issued to ARBA chartered clubs or associations.

Rule 4: All requests to hold a Tan sweepstakes open show must be in the hands of the Secretary before the date of the show. The Secretary is at liberty to set the amount of time prior to show date she/he is to receive the request. The request must be accompanied by the sponsoring club's ARBA sanction number and a fee of $10. The sanction fee must be in the hands of the Treasurer before any sweepstake points may be counted by the sweepstake chairman.

Rule 5: Announcement of a Tan sweepstake show must appear on the cover or on the page containing the Tan specials of the show catalog.

Rule 6: To qualify for the Tan sweepstake points the exhibitor must be a member of the American Tan Rabbit Specialty Club or join before the close of the show.

Rule 7: The sweepstakes form of winners is to be returned to the sweepstakes chairman of the American Tan Rabbit Specialty Club within thirty (30) days.

Rule 8: Sweepstakes points shall be accumulated by members in good standing as follows:

- 6 times the number in the class for 1st
- 4 times the number in the class for 2nd
- 3 times the number in the class for 3rd
- 2 times the number in the class for 4th
- 1 times the number in the class for 5th
- 1 times the number of Tans in the show for BOB
- ½ times the number of Tans in the show for BOS

Rule 9: Sweepstakes series to run from July 1st of one year to June 30th of the next year. Any sweepstakes reports not returned before September 16th will be void. Ten (10) awards will be given to the ten (10) point leaders in the overall sweepstakes, five (5) awards will be given to the five (5) point leaders in each variety (i.e. the top five point leaders in the Black variety sweepstakes will receive awards, as will the top five leaders in each of the other variety sweepstakes).

Rule 10: Points to be computed on actual number of Tans judged, and not on the number of Tans entered (class money, payback, and required special based on paid entries).

Rule 11: The American Tan Rabbit Specialty Club offers pins to record the total number of BOB, BOS, Best 4 Class, Reserve in Show, and Best in Show wins recorded in the sweepstakes year by each member. These pins are furnished to members in good standing yearly by the ATRSC.

Rule 12: The American Tan Rabbit Specialty Club offers a rosette for winning all Best of Varieties awards at a given show when:

1. Show sanctioned by ARBA and ATRSC
2. Winners are members in good standing with ARTSC at the time of judging

3. Five or more rabbits are shown in each variety with at least three exhibitors in each variety
4. Individual has won all four BOV awards.

Awards to be presented at ATRSC awards ceremony at the annual ARBA convention. Awards will be mailed to those unable to attend.

Rule 13: The following may be printed in the show catalog or premium list:

Official Tan Sweepstakes Show

OPEN AND YOUTH SWEEPSTAKES SHOW RULES-

AMERICAN TAN RABBIT SPECIALTY CLUB

In order to stimulate the exhibition of Tan Rabbits among the youth, the American Tan Rabbit Specialty Club has approved the following rules to govern a separate youth sweepstakes.

Rules 1, 2 & 3: Same as open rules.

Rule 4: All requests to hold a Tan sweepstakes youth show must be in the hands of the Secretary before the date of the show. The Secretary is at liberty to set the amount of time prior to show date she/he is to receive the request. The request must be accompanied by the sponsoring club's ARBA sanction number and a fee of $4. The sanction fee must be in the hands of the Treasurer before any sweepstake points may be counted by the sweepstake chairman.

Rules 5, 6, 7, & 8: Same as open rules.

Rule 9: Sweepstakes series to run from July 1st of one year to June 30th of the next year. Any sweepstakes reports not returned before September 16th will be void. Five (5) awards will be given to the five (5) point leaders in the overall sweepstakes. Three (3) awards will be given to the three (3) point leaders in each variety (i.e. the top three point leaders in the Black variety sweepstakes will receive awards, as will the top three leaders in each of the other variety sweepstakes).

Rules 10 & 11: Same as open rules.

Rule 12: $5.00 for BOB, $3.00 for BOS or an award of equal value will be awarded.

Rule 13:

- A. When both open and youth shows are offered at the same show, points earned in open by a youth member will have their points counted towards open sweepstakes. Points earned in youth remain as youth points.
- B. Points earned in open shows, when there is no youth show offered, will be counted toward youth sweepstakes.
- C. Youth members will have the choice of having points earned in open shows, when there is no youth show offered, to remain as open points with the following requirements:
 - a. The Youth will make their intentions known to the sweepstakes chairman in writing by August 1st of the current sweepstakes year. (New youth members will have 30 days from the date offering to make their intentions known to the chairman).
 - b. This intention will remain in effect for the full sweepstakes year.
 - c. With no written notice the sweepstakes chairman will count points according to the guidelines in item A and B as written above.

NATIONAL ALL – TAN SHOW RULES

Rule 1: There will only be one (1) National All-Tan Show a year. It must be held between March 1st and May 15th, or adjusted to ensure the dates are not within mandatory flight moratorium restrictions by the national airlines, of any year. It may be scheduled for one or more days.

Rule 2: The American Tan Rabbit Specialty Club will grant a free sweepstake to the club or association holding the National All-Tan Show. The ATRSC offers these specials awards to the members at the All-Tan Show: a tankard for each Best of Variety, provided there are at least 10 of that color competing.

Rule 3: There will be no Tan Sweepstakes show sanctions on the date(s) of the National All-Tan Show within a radius of 500 miles.

Rule 4: The National All-Tan Show shall be given free national publicity in the Tan Newsletter and any other publications which will willingly cooperate. The ATRSC shall make every effort to have members exhibit and assist at this show.

Rule 5: The National All-Tan Show shall be awarded at the annual meeting of the ATRSC held at the ARBA Convention each year. This show shall be awarded two (2) years in advance. (Example: The 2007 show will be awarded at the 2005 national convention). All bids must be presented by formal letter and be in the hands of the Secretary prior to the meeting. If for any reason the show cannot be awarded at this time, the President shall ask for bids and the Board of Directors shall pick the host club.

Rule 6: The sponsoring club, through its show officials, should solicit specials, and handle the financial matters pertaining to that show.
